

I hope that serious action is taken with CBS over the superbowl halftime show. We were watching the superbowl as a family and I was disgusted that my young children saw what they did. We tried flipping channels during some commercials but I was angry that even the halftime show was indecent and inappropriate.